

You are invited to screening of

‘Six Inches of Soil’

and a Book Launch at 6.30pm on Friday 12th July at Sheepscombe Village Hall, Stroud.

This will be a memorable event created in collaboration with organic local farms and land projects. Tea, coffee, wine and beer will be available for sale from local suppliers. The venue offers free parking. This film will be followed by the launch of the new book, Six Inches of Soil: How to heal our soils, ourselves and our communities through regenerative farming, with a guest panel.

We are looking forward to meeting you and spending a nourishing and informative evening. Coming together as a local community in support of one another is the future foundation of more sustainable living. Thank you for choosing to be a part of it! Tickets are available at the door by cash and card or through the QR code below at £10pp. Pre-booking is a suggested method of registration as it will allow for a smoother start to the event with more time to connect with other participants.

To BOOK scan our QR code or alternatively contact:

Amanda Godber at ‘Down to Earth’
Email: info@downtoearthstroud.co.uk
Tel: 01453 700011

